SUPERVISING THE PATROL RESPONSE TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE-RELATED CASES

Framework

The success of the interagency approach hinges largely on what happens in the first hour of each case. The patrol officer's role in laying a foundation for all subsequent interventions cannot be overemphasized. Patrol supervisors, in turn, relay the department's priorities and expectations, thereby reinforcing the interagency response and the patrol officer's key role. This is accomplished by supervisors periodically attending domestic violence calls at the scene, reviewing reports on a daily basis, and providing more in-depth review of reports as needed to maintain the department's report-writing standards and reinforce the importance of thorough patrol reports to the overall safety and accountability goals of the interagency approach.

Policy: Patrol Supervision

In addition to following general agency policy, patrol sergeants and department command will take the following actions in providing supervisory oversight in domestic violence–related cases, using the protocols, appendices, and training memos referenced and included as part of this policy.

- 1. Implement the provisions of this policy in accordance with Protocol 5: Supervising the Patrol Response to Domestic Violence.
- 2. Monitor responding officers' on-scene activities and compliance with policy by periodically appearing on the scene of domestic calls and assessing the patrol response.
- 3. Review patrol reports for accuracy and completeness.
- 4. Respond to patrol officers' requests to approve decisions to not arrest in misdemeanor cases where probable cause has been established.
- 5. Respond to department employee—involved domestic violence calls by ensuring that a supervisor of higher rank than the involved officer is dispatched to the scene.

6. Ensure that patrol officers receive and are introduced to domestic violence response policies and protocols and related appendices and training memos.
